Dear

The office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator has received your 23 January 2006 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for:

“copies of Freedom of Information Act requests to the CIA from September 11, 2001 to October 11, 2001 regarding al-Qaida.”

We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

During a telephone conversation with a member of my staff on 28 February 2006, we agreed that the best way to serve you is to provide you with a copy of our FOIA case log covering the period in question. The case log lists all the new FOIA requests received during the time period. This enables you to make a determination whether or not a specific item is responsive to your criteria.

We have enclosed the CIA FOIA case log covering the period 11 September 2001 through 11 October 2001. The only fields that appear on our case logs are creation date, case number, and case subject.

Based upon the information provided, we determined that your request falls into the “all other” fee category, which means that a requester in this category is required to pay charges which recover the cost of searching for and reproducing responsive records (if any) beyond the first 100 pages of reproduction and the first two hours of search time, which are furnished without charge. Copying costs are assessed at the rate of ten cents per page. There is no charge for the material in this particular instance, however, since search time was minimal and the number of pages provided does not exceed the 100-page threshold.

We are glad to be able to assist you.

Sincerely,

Scott Koch
